CHICAGO, April 7. AGE cuts and unemployment have brought no increased demand for cheaper cuts of meat, according to a report of the American Institute of Meat Packers issued to-day.

"It had been expected any decrease in wages or employment would tend to increase sharply the demand for forequarter meats," said the statement. "In-stead, the so-called choice meats still enjoy a great preference."

Accused of Attempted Bribery by Dry

Max Kaiter, of No. 170 Parkyville Avenue and Morris Schorbe of No. 131 Avenue and Morris Schorle of No. 194
Floyd Street, Brooklyn, were held in $7,500 bail cach before United States Commissioner McCabe for a hearing on charges of bribery. William Yaselli, a Federal enforcement agent, alleged the men offered him $200 if he would not arrest them. Yaselli said the ment were in an automobile truck going over the Williamshure Bridge when he and another agent sighted them. The agents followed the truck to a store at No. 2164 Fritton Street, according to Yaselli, and discovered several barrels of alcohol.

As remarkable for the family washing as Lux is for silks, woolens and all fine laundering

The big, heavy things soaked clean with this new product

F your whole week's washing consisted the family washing. In these pure, mild of handkerchiefs and tea napkins, Monday would never have become the day of drudgery that it is. It's the big, bulky, hard-to-handle things that have made washing such a dreaded task.

There are the sheets. The bedspreads that never show how gray and dingy they are till you actually get them in the tubs. And the bath towels and bath mats soiled from lying on the bathroom floor. These are the things that make you hate washday.

The new way of washing makes these heavy things almost as easy to launder as the handkerchiefs.

the new form of soap in fine granules. Rinso is made of finer quality ingredients than ever were used before in a soap for suds your clothes soak as safely as in water alone. For Rinso is so harmless it does not even redden your hands.

Soak your clothes overnight in a tub of Rinso suds. In the morning a thorough rinsing carries off all the dirt, leaving the clothes spotlessly clean.

Rinso softens hard water. Where hard water is used make an increased amount of the "soap liquid" according to directions on the package, and continue adding it to your tub of cold water until you have a good rich suds.

Start using Rinso next Monday. Use it
